SOFTWARE FOR YOUR MICRO

British Broadcasting Corporation

These high-quality software packs have been specially developed to make the most of the sophisticated design and great versatility of the British Broadcasting Corporation Microcomputer. They enable you to use your computer for a huge range of activities – from education to music, drawing, personal finance or games of skill and strategy.

Each pack contains a comprehensive handbook and a pre-recorded cassette carrying a set of programs. They will operate on Model A or Model B except for The Computer Programme Programs Vol. 2, which is for Model B only.

Early Learning

A colourful and stimulating learning aid designed to help young children develop their word and number skills.

Fun Games

Four great games with colour and sound to test your speed, skill and co-ordination.

Games of Strategy

Test your brain-power and tactical skills against the computer's with these intriguing games.

Home Finance

Commissioned from the Consumers' Association, these programs will help you make the right decisions about money.

Painting

Use the computer as a palette to produce full-colour designs and wonderful 3-D effects.

Drawing

Exploit your computer's graphics capabilities to create an infinite variety of shapes and patterns.

Music

The computer becomes a simple musical instrument, enabling you to compose, play and listen to your own tunes.

The Computer Programme Programs Vol. 1

Twelve of the most popular programs demonstrated in the BBC television series.

The Computer Programme Programs Vol. 2

These more sophisticated programs make use of the additional memory capacity of the Model B computer.

The British Broadcasting Corporation,
35 Marylebone Street,
London W1M 4AA.
